The Miami Association subscribes to Proxio for all of its Realtor members, to provide global networking for their agents and translation of all listings into 19 languages

The MIAMI Association of REALTORS (MIAMI) was chartered in 1920 and recently celebrated 95 years of service to REALTORS®, the buying and selling public, and the communities in South Florida. MIAMI membership currently includes over 40,000 real estate professionals, making it the largest local association in the U.S.

Deborah Boza-Valledor is both the COO and Chief Marketing Officer for MIAMI. In addition to her management roles, Deborah teaches 24 separate courses for the National Association of Realtors®. In 2015, she received NAR's prestigious CIPS Instructor of the Year award, their highest teaching honor among International Property Specialists. Deborah says: Proxio has become an integral part of what I teach... for a real estate agent, it's invaluable.

Why the Miami Association Chose Proxio

- Global Exposure for Listings & Profiles
- Global Referral Network
- 750,000+ Users Worldwide
- Fast and Accurate Translations into 19 Languages

"In a city with so many international buyers and investors, we needed a way to have listings accessible in a friendly and language-appropriate format to real estate professionals and customers who were both global and local.

Our agents who use Proxio translate their listings into 19 different languages and can send them to buyers or investors anywhere. One agent recently closed 11 transactions in 13 months, directly from Proxio."
